Eric Kalinski joined Community Choice Credit Union in 2016 and is currently a Home Equity Specialist. He educates members on the features and benefits of the different home equity loans that are available to determine the one most beneficial to the member.

Eric's initial credit union experience led to a role in management and prepared him to join Community Choice. He started as a personal advisor, where he became familiar with products and services and how they benefit members.

Eric attended Western Michigan University and has participated in multiple CUNA training sessions that continue to develop his knowledge of Home Equity Loans.

He enjoys assisting members with their debt consolidation and home improvements. Whether it's a remodeling project or an unexpected expense, Eric is dedicated to helping members become financially successful!

"Community Choice Credit Union is committed to assisting our members with their lending needs. I am honored to work for an organization that helps people excel in all areas of their lives."
