

Media Contact:
Molly Salvi, Organizational Communications Manager
877.243.2528 ext. 1462 | MSalvi@CommunityChoiceCU.com
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Community Choice Earns Top Workplace Award for 9th Consecutive Year

Farmington Hills, Mich., November 24, 2021 – For the ninth consecutive year, Community Choice Credit Union has earned the prestigious Detroit Free Press 2021 Top Workplaces Award.

Recipients of this award are determined through employee responses to in-depth, anonymous surveys that assess team members' satisfaction with their working environment.

The honor is a true source of pride for everyone at the credit union. It is further proof that Community Choice has found the right mix of work-life balance, professional development opportunities, and compensation and benefits. It also reinforces that team members are overwhelmingly happy to be a part of the Community Choice team.

Community Choice believes its culture, which is determined by its core values – Committed, Charitable, Credible and United – drives its team members to make a difference in the lives of members and the communities in which its serves.

About Community Choice Credit Union:

The Michigan-based credit union believes in helping its neighbors across the state achieve the life they desire. Established in 1935, Community Choice has 21 locations across the state, serves more than 115,000 members, and has grown its assets to $1.6 billion. The credit union is committed to helping the community and upholds a Give Big philosophy. Since 2008, team members have given more than 26,000 volunteer hours in communities across the state. Additionally, The Community Choice Foundation, has awarded $1.3 million in scholarships to Michigan's students graduating from high school, pursuing continuing education programs, and the skilled trades. To learn more, visit CommunityChoice.com.